Overview

Khao Sok National Park is one of Thailand's most biodiverse rainforests, older than the Amazon and home to towering limestone karsts, emerald rivers, and rare wildlife. This full-day SIC tour from Phuket takes you deep into that landscape for an ethical elephant bathing experience and a scenic canoe through the jungle waterways — two highlights that never get old. National park fees and a local lunch are included, so there are no hidden costs on arrival. Comfortable shared transfers collect you from your Phuket accommodation and handle the roughly two-hour drive each way. A strong choice for families, couples, and solo travellers who want a genuine slice of southern Thailand's interior without the logistical headache.
