

7 Islands Sunset + Mini BBQ Dinner by Longtail Boat + SIC Transfer (Exclude National Park Fee)

#TOUR-089 · TOUR · Island Tour · Krabi

Overview

Krabi's legendary Seven Islands come alive at golden hour on this 6-hour longtail boat adventure. Cruise through dramatic limestone karsts, drop anchor at secluded coves, and watch the Andaman sky ignite in shades of orange and red before a relaxed mini BBQ dinner served right on the water. It's a simple, genuine Thai island experience — no crowds, no frills, just the sea, the sunset, and fresh-grilled food. Shared-service (SIC) transfers are included for easy pick-up and drop-off, making this an effortless add-on to any Krabi itinerary. Perfect for couples, families, and solo travellers looking to end the day in style without breaking the budget. Note: National Park entry fees are payable on the day.

Itinerary

1	1.) Phra-Nang Cave
---	--------------------

2	2.) Railay Bay : This place has a beautiful beach with a unique shrine full of carved wooden phallic items. Believers come here to pay their respects and pray. (Only Sightseeing)
3	3.) Chicken Island : Known for its limestone pillar that resembles a head of a chicken, this area is a go-to place for snorkeling.
4	4.) Tup Island : When the tides are low, a sand bar appears and connects Tup Island with its neighboring Mor Island and Chicken Island. Crystal clear waters surround this area.
5	5.) Poda Island : An Island with white sand beaches stretching from one side to the other that is surrounded by shallow, clear waters good for swimming and relaxing. We served BBQ Dinner here.
6	6.) Tang Ming Island : One of the iconic landmarks in Krabi which can be seen from Poda Island.
7	7.) Bioluminescent Plankton Site : A location around Railay Bay where bioluminescent planktons glow when you swim around this area. (Availability subject to weather, moon phase and tide conditions.)
